

THE CITY.

The usual weekly temperance meeting will be conducted tonight at the Methodist Episcopal church by Mr. J. B. Martin. The public is invited.

James Dacy has resigned from the police force. Ten days a cop convinced him that shoving the jack plane is a better vocation than carrying the baton.

A Kansas paper considers it a remarkable thing that the military salute for ladies instead of lifting the hat has found its way out as far as Las Vegas.

N. L. Rosenthal reached his fifty-third birthday yesterday and was presented with a gold-headed cane by his friends. The old gentleman took the cane with an enregre grace.

George W. Noyes, of the Las Vegas store house, is in El Paso, but not in search of a wife as his friends have been led to suppose. He went there to find Mary Churchill and claim a big reward.

A St. Louis man named Charles H. Springer has secured rooms on Center street and will soon establish a boot and shoe factory. He is a man of plentiful means and has spent his life within the smell of sole leather.

The banks say the postal notes must go. Of course the banks are right, but for the sake of peace in the newspaper family let us hope that the notes will be retained a year or so, in order that delinquent subscribers may be afforded ample opportunity to make a few remittances to publishers.

The horse men are working up an interest in racing animals. Tomorrow afternoon a half mile dash, best two in three, will be paced by Little Dan and Bartlett's Flyer. Stakes $50 a side. The friends of the horses have arranged the race and are putting up the wealth. The race takes place on the highway leading to Kearney's gap.

The ladies of the Presbyterian and society of this city who have been promised the huge sum of $15 in the event of success, will undertake the task of quilting a quilt without speaking a word next Thursday night. The bee will be held at the opera house and the following ladies will suffer martyrdom for three hours, for the good of the poor: Mrs. Sloan, Mrs. Hobart, Mrs. J. H. Wise, Mrs. F. A. Lasher, Mrs. J. H. Teate, Mrs. George Dinkel, Mrs. B. B. Borden and Mrs. Keller.

Julson Jarvis, a capitalist from New York, arrived in the city yesterday, accompanied by a friend. Mr. Jarvis is on his way to La Cima, Ft. Bascom and other points in the cow country and leaves by private conveyance this morning. A little over a year ago he made a trip into the country near about to be entered and wrote a series of most interesting sketches for the New York Telegram, a paper in which he has an interest. Mr. Jarvis is acquainted with the Waddingshams, and will be their guest while at Fort Bascom and the Bell ranch.

Las Vegas ladies who wait around the streets in Mother Hubbard gown are a favored class in comparison with their Kansas City sisters. The other day a policeman of that place approached a lady on a crowded thoroughfare. He had business with her. He did not upbraid her with a club, as they do in Chicago; he did not draw his pistol and initiate a wild work of carnage, as they do in New York. He touched her hat politely and said: "Madam, you'll have to go home and put a belt around that Mother Hubbard, or I'll have to run you in."

The Cow Thieves.

At 2 o'clock yesterday afternoon the preliminary hearing of the Territory against James Harris, A. W. Smith and W. R. Gaston, charged with stealing cattle, was resumed in Justice Segura's court. The accused men were in attendance and were informed that the court was ready to receive the evidence for the defense. The prisoners replied that they would waive their right to introduce rebuttal testimony, and the justice placed them under bonds of $200 each for their appearance at the next session of the grand jury. In default of bail the prisoners were taken back to the county jail. Should they fail to secure bondsmen, and it looks as if such will be the case, the fellows will have to remain in durance vile about five months.

Sandejula Canon Coal.

The much-talked-of long-sought for coal mines in this vicinity have at last been brought to light, and if the crop comes anywhere near reaching the proportions that are indicated in the find the people of Las Vegas may congratulate themselves that the fuel question is settled. The mines are located about the claims of W. A. Auble & Son, and associated with them in the enterprise are Messrs. Robert Nattiger and Henry and William Coors. They are located in the Sandeja Canon about eight miles from the city and now give evidence of being absolutely a mountain of coal. The article is the equal of any bituminous coal found in the far west, and is far superior to most of it. The gentlemen have only been at work a few days and have sunk the shaft a depth of fifty feet. Yesterday a small solid fire was seen and are certain that a little lower it will spread out to sufficient size to enable them to begin mining for sale. If good luck attends them in securing the material they may rest assured of hosts of purchasers.

A Close Shaver.

The shades of Wednesday night afforded another villain to escape from Las Vegas. Robert Lindig, or J. Roberts, as he was pleased to call himself in Las Vegas, came here on the day and followed the trade of a barber. He was employed at Antonio Abeytia's shop on the Plaza until that person died, when he assumed the proprietorship of the shop. A few days ago he took a partner in the person of one Graham, receiving from him $100 for an interest in the business. Following is a partial list of Roberts' customers, and which will amount in the aggregate to fully $1,500: Dr. Kruener, $500; J. Graham, $100; Charles Liffeld, $100; Lorenzo Lopez, $150; O. L. Slaughter, $15; M. Friedman, $50; Dr. J. H. Shout, $10; J. Rosenwald & Co., $14; E. J. Mezie, $50; J. Ellsworth, $10; A. W. Givens, $50; Thorp & Co., $10; and R. Amadio, $5.

As stated above Roberts' right name is Robert Lindig. He is a Pennsylvania man, hailing from Franklin, that state. He is about fifty years of age and has two grown sons, both having lived in Las Vegas. Six years ago Lindig was a barber in Newton, Kansas, going from there to Nickerson. He had a wife here different from the one in Kansas, a fact that has been known only to a few. It is believed that Lindig has gone to California.

Graham, the well-known artist, will open this morning the barber shop deserted by Roberts yesterday. His abilities are too well known in Las Vegas to need further notice.

MUNICIPAL MATTERS.

Report of a Council Meeting Held Yesterday.

The city fathers held a regular meeting yesterday afternoon with Members Kihlberg, Booth, Mendenhall, Whitmore, and Rathbun present. Mr. Whitmore occupied the chair.

Kihlberg presented a new and modified petition for the opening of an alley on grounds owned by the Sisters of Loretto. The new demands were for an alley twenty feet wide instead of ten feet as originally petitioned. The petition was referred back to the committee on streets and alleys for further investigation.

Councilman Whitmore presented a petition from Miss Lusk praying that Aunt Connelly be enjoined from erecting a building on an alley at the rear of lots owned by the petitioner. The document was referred.

Marshal Franklin made a report about the case of Mrs. Annie Wilson, an insane woman of the town, asking aid for her. He also reported the resignation of James Dacy, a policeman, and reported a man named Phillips in the circumstances.

The bills presented at the last meeting were returned from their respective committees approved. Warrants were ordered drawn.

Kihlberg presented a communication regarding city lots formerly controlled by the county. He recommended the passing of an ordinance governing this matter. A committee was appointed to draw the ordinance. On motion the communication was referred to the committee on public grounds.

A communication was received from N. Romero, who kicked against having the assessments on his city property raised from $1,340 to $15,000. The communication was tabled as the council considered the matter beyond their province.

The following new bills were presented and referred:

Richard Rankin, salary, $72 75
Kihlberg, salary, $72 75
Booth, salary, $72 75
Mendenhall, salary, $72 75
Whitmore, salary, $72 75
Rathbun, salary, $72 75
On motion the city dog catcher was authorized to take up stray animals at the rate of fifty cents per head. This fee must be paid to the pound keeper upon redemption of animals.

The city clerk was instructed to issue an order on Justice Segura for certain blankets held for security, to be turned over to the marshal.

In the case of Annie Wilson, the alleged insane woman, no action was taken.

Policeman Dacy's resignation was accepted and H. A. Hunley was elected to fill the vacancy.

The meeting adjourned on Rathbun's motion.

The Court House Squabble.

Yesterday morning at nine o'clock the county commissioners met their court house committee and got down to the business of the day without much preliminary action. This committee is composed of the following gentlemen: Charles Blanchard, C. E. Wesche, J. Rosenwald, M. Romero and I. Stern, all merchants doing business on the Plaza. The committee furnished a lengthy report in which they recommended the commissioners to discharge one Thornton as the architect of the plans, saying that they were full of defects and wholly unsuitable for the purpose intended. They furthermore stated in their report that "Thornton has not the ability to take charge of building such a structure as this court house, and we are unable to see why he presents such incomplete plans. We bear no malice toward Thornton, but we do not want his plans accepted."

Chairman Leonard Sanchez, who seems to be a level-headed and precise sort of a man, accepted the complaints made by the committee in common-sense way and seemed to coincide with his friends as to the worthlessness of the plans. He evidently believed that Thornton's incompetency was sufficient reason to invalidate the contract between the board and the architect. The session continued until 8 o'clock last night and as the commissioners had arrived at no definite conclusion the meeting was adjourned until 9 o'clock this morning.

The entire day was lost in giving the architect an opportunity to explain his plans, and the other of the numerous deficiencies in his plans, an expert being present to point out the blunders one by one. The commissioners offered to pay Thornton $400 the work already done, but he held out for $800 and after threatening to sue the county for $2,000, finally agreed to compromise on $600.

The plan drawn under the direction of the committee, a bond of $10,000 being required from the architect for the faithful performance of the duties devolved upon him. The GAZETTE naturally imagines that competition for plans would result in a choice of several good ones and that the best satisfaction could be obtained in this way.
